POSITION DESCRIPTION AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Extension agents are professional educators, community connectors and innovators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are jointly responsible to the director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

ABOUT THIS ROLE

Title

Extension Agent.

Primary responsibility

Family Resource Management programming.

Application deadline

Monday, August 26, 2024.

Interviews will be September 10, 2024.

Location

Offices in Minneapolis and Salina, KS; primary office is negotiable.

The Central Kansas District consists of Ottawa and Saline counties. A team of seven extension agents and six support staff serve a combined population of 60,000.

The district has three post-secondary educational institutions, nine high schools, a regional medical center, and is a shopping and employment hub.

The Central Kansas District has a reputation for developing proactive programming, offering sound technical assistance and cultivating strong collaborative partnerships.

- Lead the development, implementation, and evaluation of research-based educational programming related to family resource management. Programming may include but is not limited to: financial planning; budgeting and record keeping; consumer credit; senior health insurance counseling; and taxpayer education.
- Share responsibility for 4-H youth development programming related to personal finances and budgeting, as well as 4-H project areas related to family and consumer sciences. This will include shared leadership for county fair events and activities.
- Share responsibility for community vitality programming that helps our communities become better places to live, work, and play by strengthening social, civic, economic, and technological capacity through leadership development and civic engagement.
- Successful extension programs require agents to:
  - Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension's five Grand Challenges (water and natural resources; community vitality; health; developing tomorrow's leaders; and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.
  - Design appropriate educational strategies to respond to emerging needs and engage clientele by aligning with the imperatives of the K-State Next-Gen Strategic Plan. Strategies might include educational programming in a community-based setting; events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities; use of innovative technologies; individual educational consultations; and group facilitation.
  - Collaborate with local partners to meet community and programmatic needs.
  - Recruit and manage volunteers to further the reach and impact of extension programming.
  - Develop and implement strategies to serve diverse audiences and to ensure K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.
  - Collect and communicate evidence of educational program impact.
  - Cultivate expertise in a subject matter competency area by engaging as a member of the Family Resource Management Program Focus Team.
- Pursue internal and external funding to support educational programming.
- Serve as a member of the Central Kansas District team, cooperating in the planning and delivery of district-wide programming and related events.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree.
- Academic coursework, professional development, or prior employment related to the position responsibilities.
- Evidence of strong academic and/or professional performance, as documented by college transcripts or documented success in increasingly responsible professional positions.
- Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing, with individuals, groups, and through mass media.
